How to make a good presentation

Making a good presentation starts with crafting the content. No matter how compelling your message is, if you don't get it out of your brain and on to the screen in a simple way, you'll be met with a sea of blank faces. So, where to begin?

1. Create an easy-to-follow structure When it comes to what you have to say, break it down into three simple sections: your presentation needs an introduction, body, and conclusion.
 - A compelling introduction. Your introduction needs to briefly sum up what you're going to talk about and why it's useful or relevant to your audience.
 - Offer a body of evidence. The body of your presentation is where you hit
